On April 9th, Carrie Ann Williams, of Andana Consulting, will be presenting a webinar titled “Set Up Your Proposal Process for Success.”

Have you started writing a proposal with an excited team only to be pushing up against the submission deadline? Or you’ve been tracking the opportunity for months and had a solid capture plan in place, but it came out well before you expected.

Solicitations don’t always hit your desk at the perfect time, and even the best teams aren’t always available to draft great content. But, with a solid process in place, your firm can maximize the internal resources and provide the right guidance to your proposal writing team to get everyone on the right track and meet the submission deadlines.

As a client of ND PTAC, you can attend this webinar at no cost to you. So, if you’re interested in this topic, check out the details below and register today.
