January 8 – Start Your Contracting Year Off with a Tune-Up!

Kareen Dougherty, SD Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC)

Annually you should review and update your information on federal databases and registrations. This webinar will give you a starting point on checks and updates you can make to make sure your information is current and visible to government agencies and prime contractors.

February 5 – Legal Update: Changes Effecting Government Contracting

Tim Connelly, Tim Connelly Law PLLC

Government contracting laws and regulations often do not follow commercial contracting rules, and are constantly changing. This class will focus on contract interpretation developments, recent fraud enforcement cases, and new court decisions and regulations impacting how small business government contractors bid on and perform contracts with government agencies.
